11	Skating	Mr. Puru Singh	Sport is as old as humanity itself. It's kept societies fit and healthy while building strong communities and boosting morale. In today's pandemic stricken world, we have seen first-hand evidence of how important it is to look after both body & mind. For us, the solution was an obvious one. The importance of sports is more relevant than ever. Competitive physical exercise not only motivates children and adults to get outside and keep fit, but it also instills important values	https://pushsports.in/
12	Table Tennis	Ms. Sakshi Khandelwal	We popularise the game so that very large number of children play it under professional guidance. We charge nominal fees from the students both for regular coaching as well as tournaments, so that money does not become a constraint in any manner. Besides Table Tennis coaching and physical fitness training, the players are also given regular inputs on motivation and mental strength. We regularly assess progress made by the players and communicate the same to the parents via progress report and regular meetings. We organise tournaments regularly to help players assess and promote their competitive strengths and learn from defeats.' 16	Art	Ms. Sonika Agarwal	My art journey over 17 years took place while walking on paths where no one has walked before, since paths are made by walking. One has not adopted any traditional school of thought or any other ism. My journey has been blessed with International and National exposure in art exhibitions and art residencies by visiting and hosting Artists from ASEAN countries, SAARC countries, South Africa, Germany, China, Bhutan, Sri Lanka and Pakistan. The preferred medium to express myself on is oil and acrylic colors on canvas, charcoal, water colors on paper and art installations. My crowning glory has been to receive the National Award from the President of India. My studio practise has been dedicated to looking inwards to evolve my art techniques in paintings which are not intimidated by the past, has a universal language and have a new story to tell.	https://www.artistsonikaagarwal.com/
